

Sounds of Stillness

A week of (more) music at Stillness Juniors' and Infants' schools.

Monday 2 – Friday 6 July 2018

Next week we are turning up the volume on music throughout the day in both schools. The Juniors' Music Suite and Infants' Packed Lunch room will be kept open and supervised, so that children can take part in some activities and also try out their own musical ideas as well as music in the playground and workshops in class time. As well as activities during lesson and break times, we hope you can join us afterschool for one of these cracking family events.
